Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Children

Rehabilitation is the re-integration into society of a convicted person and the main objective of modern penal policy, to counter habitual offending, also known as criminal recidivism.. Alternatives to imprisonment also exist, such as community service, probation orders, and others entailing guidance and aftercare towards the defender

Rehabilitation (penology) - Wikipedia

Children who have suffered early abuse or neglect may later present with significant behavior problems including emotional instability, depression, and a tendency to be aggressive or violent with others. Troublesome behaviors may persist long after the abusive or neglectful environment has changed or the child has been in foster care placement.

Understanding the Behavioral and Emotional Consequences of Child grooming is befriending and establishing an emotional connection with a child, and sometimes the family, to lower the child's inhibitions with the objective of sexual abuse. Child grooming is also regularly used to lure minors into various illicit businesses such as child trafficking, child prostitution, or the production of child pornography.
