In religion and folklore, Hell is an afterlife location, sometimes a place of torment and punishment. Religions with a linear divine history often depict hells as eternal destinations while religions with a cyclic history often depict a hell as an intermediary period between incarnations. Typically these traditions locate hell in another dimension or under the Earth's surface and often include ...

Brass, especially the work hardened brass of the walls and shoulder of a cartridge, has a certain level of spring-back. When the brass is bent or formed it will move back to its original position, not much maybe a couple thousandths of an inch, but when the cartridge is fired the case expands and is pressed against the walls of the chamber, the brass then will spring back and become a couple ...

In the panoply of problems facing corporate leaders today, the common thread is the either-or-nature of trade offs. This is what makes wicked problems so wicked. Designful leaders do not accept the hand-me-down notion that cost-cutting and innovation are mutually exclusive, or that short-term and long-term goals are irreconcilable.
