Women and Leadership Chapter 1: Women in Leadership. A total of 299 women have served as U.S. representatives or senators since 1917, when Jeannette Rankin of Montana was elected as the first woman to serve in Congress. 7 And this month, a record 104 women were sworn in as members of the 114th Congress. Yet, while the share of women serving in Congress has risen steadily for more than two ...

Why do men still vastly outnumber women in leadership positions? There is no lack of qualified women to fill leadership roles. Women earn the majority of university degrees at every level except for professional degrees, and more women are in the workforce today than ever before. There must be something inherent in the system that's working against them.
